

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

It is the policy of the Council to give employees the opportunity to air and seek redress for any individual employment grievance which they may have. Grievances may be any concerns, problems or complaints employees wish to raise with the council. This document describes the procedure which aims to facilitate a speedy, fair and consistent solution to an individual employee's employment grievance. This procedure is produced in line with the ACAS Code of Practice 2009 as set out in the Employment Act 2008.

2. PRINCIPLES

- a) At every stage in the procedure the employee will be given the opportunity to state his or her case before any decision is made.
- b) Grievances will be dealt with promptly and consistently.
- c) At all formal stages the employee will have the right to be accompanied by a work colleague or trade union representative during the Grievance Hearing.
- d) An employee will have the right to appeal against any outcome of a Grievance Hearing.
- e) At no time will an employee be penalised or victimised for having raised a Grievance against the Council.

3. PROCEDURE

3.1 Wherever possible, any grievance should be raised informally with the Town Clerk. In the case of the Town Clerk raising a grievance this should be directed to the Mayor of the council unless the complaint is about the Mayor, in which case the Deputy Mayor will deal with the Town Clerk's concerns. The recipient of the grievance from the Town Clerk will share the grievance with the Grievance and Disciplinary Hearing Panel established to handle employment matters and the issues will be treated with discretion and confidentiality at all times.

3.2 Written Statement: If the employee does not consider it appropriate to raise the grievance informally, or if requested by the person the employee spoke to informally, then the employee should submit a formal grievance in writing to the Town Clerk, or if it is the Town Clerk with the grievance then the Town Clerk should submit a formal grievance to the Chairman of the Grievance and Disciplinary Hearing Panel.

3.3 Meeting or Hearing: Where possible, within five working days of receipt of a written complaint, the Town Clerk or Chairman of the Grievance and Disciplinary Hearing Panel will arrange a meeting with the employee. The Town Clerk or Chairman of the Hearing Panel will endeavour to make the meeting arrangements mutually convenient and will arrange a confidential location, free from interruptions. The Town Clerk or Chairman of the Hearing Panel will investigate the substance of the complaint and hear submissions from the employee concerned together with such other submissions or evidence as he/she shall consider appropriate and take such steps as he/she considers necessary to resolve the issue raised. It may be necessary to adjourn the meeting in order for an investigation to take place. Careful consideration of the evidence and the necessary steps required to resolve the problems will be given to the grievance. The employee may call witnesses by prior arrangement with the Hearing Panel.

There is no right for a Member or employee implicated in an employee's grievance to cross examine the aggrieved during a grievance hearing but the Panel may wish to make its own investigations through interviewing these individuals and/or other witnesses separately. The Hearing Panel may ask the employee what he or she would like to happen as a result of raising the grievance.

3.4 Response: The Hearing Panel Chairman will advise the decision to the employee in writing and, where appropriate, include an action plan to assist in the resolution of the problem. The Hearing Panel will consider the options and costs in a timely fashion, then agree and publicise the workable solutions, monitor, review and learn from the experience. The SLCC may be consulted should the Town Council wish to explore mediation between two parties.

3.5 Appeal: If the employee is dissatisfied with the decision of the Hearing Panel he/she may appeal against the decision to the Chairman of the Hearing Panel by written notice within five working days of the decision. An Appeal may be raised if:

- The employee thinks the finding, or action plan, is unfair.
- New evidence has come to light.
- The employee thinks that the procedure was not applied properly.

On receipt of the appeal the Town Council's Appeals Panel will arrange to meet and consult with the employee, the Town Clerk or Members concerned and any other persons, as he/she considers appropriate without unreasonable delay. The Appeal Hearing Chairman will consider the issues and take all such steps, as he/she may consider necessary to resolve those issues. Where the Town Council's Chairman has chaired the initial grievance meeting the Vice Chairman of the Town Council or Chairman of the Hearing Panel will hear the appeal and the decision of the Appeal Hearing will be final. The Town Council will ensure that the Members involved in the hearings are able to act impartially and reasonably at all times. The outcome of the appeal will be conveyed to the employee in writing in a timely manner.

3.6 Bullying or Harassment: If a grievance concerns alleged bullying or harassment the matter should be reported promptly to the Town Clerk, or Member of the Council if the grievance is against the Town Clerk. The complaint will be investigated and any action taken and any resolution achieved will be reported back. If the solution is not satisfactory to the complainant, the matter will be discussed further and, if appropriate, an alternative solution agreed. The decision at this stage will generally conclude the enquiry. If a further appeal or review is available the employee will be notified. As a result of an investigation into a claim of harassment disciplinary action may be instigated against any alleged perpetrators of the action, or in the case of alleged perpetrators being elected Members, a Code of Conduct complaint lodged by the Town Council through the Standards process.

The Council's Anti Bullying Policy should be referred to for further details.

3.7 Right to be Accompanied: At any formal stage of the procedure an employee may be accompanied by a fellow employee of their choice or their trade union representative or official of a trade union (appropriately accredited) but as this is an internal procedure they will not be entitled to be accompanied by any external supporter e.g. partner, parent, solicitor etc. This right to be accompanied is enshrined in the Employment Relations Act 1999.

To exercise this right the employee should make a reasonable request. The companion will be allowed to address the Hearing, put and sum up the employee's case, respond to views expressed at the Hearing and to confer with the employee during the Hearing (sometimes in an adjournment) but is not allowed to answer questions on the employee's behalf, address the Hearing if the employee does not wish it or prevent the employer from explaining their case.

3.8 Hearing Panels

In situations where individual members are implicated in the dispute or have undertaken an investigatory role then they will be substituted as panel members.

3.9 Confidentiality: So far as is reasonably practicable, the Town Council will keep any grievance or complaint of harassment confidential between the Town Clerk or Member investigating the grievance or complaint, the employee and the person about whom the grievance or complaint is made. If it is necessary to investigate the matter with any other employee or person, the employee will be so advised.

3.10 Record Keeping: In all cases, written records of the nature of the grievance raised, the employer's response, action taken (with reasons), details of any appeal and subsequent developments will be retained and kept in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

3.11 Grievances raised during Disciplinary

In some circumstances when a disciplinary process has commenced an employee may choose to exercise his/her right to raise an internal grievance about the employment relationship with the Town Council or individual Members. If when a disciplinary process has commenced an employee chooses to exercise his/her right to raise an internal grievance about the employment relationship with the Town Council or individual Members, disciplinary matters will be placed on hold until grievances have been aired and actions towards a resolution have been progressed, (as recommended by SLCC and ACAS).

This policy was adopted on 2 September 2010 – minute no: 13(d).
