TOWN/PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Introduction to Election Procedures

The election process for all elections is set out in law, so candidates must ensure that they are familiar with the requirements set out in these guidance notes. They are however provided as general guidance only; queries on any specific issues, should be directed to the Electoral Commission and guidance/additional application forms can be downloaded direct from their website – www.electoralcommission.org.uk.

The 1983 and 1985 Representation of the People Acts, together with the Local Elections (Parishes and Communities) Rules 1986, and the Representation of the People Act 2000 & the Representation of the People Regulations 2001 made several changes to the way town/parish elections are conducted.

The Returning Officer appointed by Shropshire Council is responsible for the conduct of, and arrangements for town and parish council elections. However, both the town and parish council and its clerk have an important role to play, especially in giving advice to prospective candidates prior to the four-yearly ordinary elections and in the preliminary arrangements for the filling of casual vacancies, including by-elections.

SHROPSHIRE COUNCIL'S WEBSITE

Information about every parish, town and unitary vacancy is advertised on Shropshire Council's "Vacancies and By-Elections" webpage.

For by-elections called, all relevant notices [Notice of Election, Statement of Persons Nominated, Notice of Poll and Declaration of Results] will be published on that page. The Council's website address is:-

You may also follow us on Twitter @shropcouncil

These notes should be a useful reference if you are involved with town or parish council elections, either as a clerk, councillor or candidate. However, if you need any more information on specific local matters, please contact Shropshire Council's Elections Team on 0345 678 9015.

For guidance on legal issues, candidates should obtain their own independent legal advice, and should contact the Electoral Commission – e-mail: infoengland@electoralcommission.org.uk or Tel. 0333 103 1928.

Up-to-date information for candidates is available via the Electoral Commission's website – www.electoralcommission.org.uk.

ORDINARY TOWN/PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

A1. Term of Office

Town/parish councillors hold office for a period of four years (or if elected part way through the cycle, for the remainder of that period only) and retire on the fourth day after the ordinary day of election. The newly elected councillors take office (provided they have made declarations of acceptance of office) on the day on which their predecessors retire (Local Government Act, 1972, Section 16(3)). The chair of a town/parish council continues in office until their successor becomes entitled to act in that capacity.

A2. Combination of Elections

The Representation of the People Act 1983, Section 36 allows for the ordinary elections of Shropshire Councillors to be combined with the ordinary elections of town/parish councillors, if they are held on the same day.

If a parliamentary (general) election is called for the same day as the scheduled ordinary elections of Shropshire and town/parish councillors, the law provides for the parliamentary and county polls to be combined, and the town/parish polling day to be postponed for three weeks.

A3. The Election Timetable

We will provide candidates and town/parish clerks with a timetable for each election or by-election. Key dates will also be shown on Shropshire Council's website.

Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Good Friday and Bank Holidays are disregarded when the timetable is being calculated before polling day. They are however, included in the calculation of proceedings following polling day. For example, the last day for the delivery of candidates' returns of election expenses, which is calculated as 28 calendar days after the day of election.

A4. Absent Voting – Postal and Proxy Applications

- New postal vote applications, or applications to change an existing postal vote to a proxy vote (or vice-versa), or to have a postal ballot paper sent to a different address, or to cancel a postal must be made in writing to the Electoral Registration Officer at the Shirehall, Abbey Foregate, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, SY2 6ND by 5pm on the eleventh day before Polling Day.
- New or amended proxy applications must be made by 5pm on the sixth day before Polling Day.
- Application forms for postal votes and proxy appointments can be downloaded from our own website or from www.aboutmyvote.com.

A5. Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the town/parish council must take place between 1st March and 1st June, on a day of their choosing, but must not be held on a Sunday or a Bank Holiday.

In an election year, the Annual Meeting must be held within 4-18 days after the election.

FILLING OF CASUAL VACANCIES

Casual vacancies will be filled either by means of holding a by-election or by co-opting a new Councillor to fill the vacancy. Co-option is only permitted once the vacancy has been formally advertised, to allow local electors the opportunity to call a by-election if so desired.

B1. The Vacancy

Firstly, the town/parish council must advertise the vacancy. This should be done by displaying a notice, similar to the notice in Appendix 1. Copies of the notice should be displayed in places that are as conspicuous as possible within the parish and a copy of that notice must be sent immediately to the Returning Officer, Shropshire Council, The Shirehall, Abbey Foregate, Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY2 6ND. The town/parish council may also advertise the vacancy in any other manner they wish. (Clerks must inform the Elections Office at the Shirehall of any vacancies by e-mail to elections@shropshire.gov.uk).

It is important to complete the notice correctly, paying particular attention to the dates on the notice. It must be displayed for 14 days from the date of the Notice, and when calculating the dates, it must not include weekends nor bank holidays.

B2. Filling the Vacancy by Election

During the 14 days when the notice is displayed, ten electors from within the parish (or relevant ward of the town/parish) can call for a by-election to be held. To do this, they will need to make their request in writing to The Returning Officer, Shropshire Council, The Shirehall, Abbey Foregate, Shrewsbury, Shropshire. SY2 6ND. A sample election request form is in Appendix 2; copies can also be downloaded from Shropshire Council's website.

In the event of this happening, Shropshire Council will notify the clerk. The Returning Officer will decide on the date of the election, which must fall within 60 working days from the date of the notice of vacancy.

In the case of a casual vacancy occurring within six months before the day on which that councillor would regularly have retired, an election is not held. The town/parish council may co-opt a person to fill the vacancy, but any vacancy not so filled, shall be filled at the next ordinary election.

B3. Official Poll Cards

Where the poll at a town/parish election is not combined with another type of election, the town/parish council may request the Returning Officer to issue poll cards for that election. A written instruction from the clerk (by e-mail) to the Elections Team will suffice, but it must be received by the close of the nomination period.

Where a town/parish election is combined with a Shropshire Council election, the poll cards will be issued for the county election, but will refer to the town/parish election taking place on the same day.

B4. Filling the Vacancy by Co-option

If an election is not requested, the clerk will be notified that the town/parish council must co-opt a member to fill the vacancy as soon as practicable. Once a co-option has taken place:-

- the name and address of the person co-opted should be sent to Shropshire Council's Democratic Services Team (not the Elections Team), as they keep full records of all current town and parish councillors.
- a copy of their "Declaration of Personal Interest Form" must also be sent to the Shropshire Council's Monitoring Officer.

If the number of casual vacancies leaves the town/parish council without a quorum, Shropshire Council may order an election to be held and in the meantime may by order appoint people to fill all or any of the vacancies until other councillors are elected and take up office.

B5. Co-Option, Best Practice

- (i) Advertise the casual vacancies within the parish and local press.
- (ii) Set a date by which prospective candidates must write into the chairman or clerk to the town/parish council expressing their interests in these casual vacancies.
- (jii) Notice of the election by co-option should be given in the agenda for the meeting of the town/parish council.
- (iv) When the item is reached, the chairman should call for nominations, which should be duly proposed and seconded.
- (v) Candidates can be either interviewed, or their letter of interest read out to those present at the town/parish council meeting.
- (vi) The prospective candidates must fulfil the same criteria requirements as those for qualifications for candidature for an election.
- (vii) When all the nominations have been received, a vote should be taken. It is usual for the candidates' names to be put in alphabetical order. (Voting in council on casual vacancies is recommended).
- (viii) The successful candidate should have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting.
- (ix) It follows, that if there are more than two candidates for one vacancy, and no one of them at the first count receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps should be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder should then be put to the vote again; this process should, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

- (x) If there is more than one vacancy, and the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies, all the vacancies may be filled by a single composite resolution. However, if the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, each vacancy should be filled by a separate vote or series of votes.
- (xi) After the vote has been taken, the chairman should declare the candidate who received the highest number of votes duly elected.
- (xii) The person elected must make a Declaration of Acceptance of Office before, or at, the first meeting of the town/parish council following his election in the presence of a member of the town/parish council or the Proper Officer of the town/parish council.

Note: There is nothing preventing councillors from approaching persons asking them to offer themselves for co-option, or even advertising for co-optee applicants. Potential candidates might be invited to provide a written “application” or to speak to the council prior to any voting. If such arrangements are to be applied, they should be carefully drafted and provided to applicants. It is imperative that all applicants are treated alike, in order that the arrangements are seen as fair. Applicants under such arrangements should be discouraged from any personal lobbying.

B6. Insufficient Nominations

Where an election has been requested to fill a casual vacancy and there are an equal number of candidates to seats available, that person(s) is elected unopposed, and takes up office immediately after the close of withdrawals.

B7. Term of Office

A person elected or co-opted to fill a casual vacancy holds office until the person in whose place they are elected or appointed would regularly have retired.

ELECTION AND NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Whether standing at ordinary scheduled elections or by-elections, the nomination procedures are the same and the following guidance is aimed to assist candidates, both at nomination stage and beyond.

C1. Nomination Procedures

It is important that nomination papers are completed correctly. Whilst it is often the case that the town/parish clerk will arrange to distribute and oversee the completion of nomination papers (particularly so at scheduled elections), it is the responsibility of each individual candidate and not the clerk, to ensure that their papers are submitted to the Returning Officer before the deadline specified within the statutory election timetable.

DELIVERY OF NOMINATION PAPERS (Important Changes in Legislation)

Nomination papers are not able to be submitted electronically and following a recent change in legislation, it is no longer possible for candidates to post their applications; THEY MUST BE DELIVERED IN PERSON.

When delivering your ballot papers, it is advisable to wait for them to be checked by the Elections Team before you leave. This is because if we discover an error, you will be able to take your paper away with you to correct it and re-submit it before the closing date and time.

Please note that nomination papers cannot be submitted until the date of publication of the Notice of Election.

Any papers which are incomplete, incorrect or received after the close of nominations cannot be accepted as valid.

Please take a few moments to familiarise yourself with the following guidance before you complete your nomination paper:-

About Yourself:

Each candidate must be nominated on a separate nomination paper in the prescribed form, the notes to which should be read carefully.

The nomination paper must give:-

- the full names (surname first) and home address of the candidate and
- may, if desired, give his or her description, which must not exceed six words in length and are predominantly for use when the seat is being contested by members of a political party, or when candidates are "Independent".

Please note that your description is what will appear on the printed ballot paper. If you therefore write your description as "Farmer - Blue Eyes, Black Hair", this is what will be printed below your name when the ballot papers are produced.

A candidate may not use a description which is likely to lead voters to associate him or her with a Political Party unless that description is authorized by a Certificate signed by or on behalf of the Party's Registered Nominating Officer, which must also be received by the Returning Officer not later than the latest time for the delivery of nomination papers.

If a candidate wishes to use a party's emblem to appear against his or her name on the ballot paper, this must also be requested before the closing time for delivery of nominations.

Guidance on the use of Commonly Used Names:

Great care should be taken when a candidate completes his or her nomination paper, if they decide to use a commonly used name. The commonly used name will be printed on the Statement of Persons Nominated, the Notice of Poll, and the Ballot Paper.

Candidates may ask to use their commonly used forename, surname, or both, but the Returning Officer may reject the use of this if it is deemed to be misleading or offensive.

Please note that if either the commonly used forename or surname box on the nomination paper is left BLANK, then your ACTUAL forename or surname, depending on which commonly used name box has been left blank, will be used.

Full guidance on this issue can be obtained from the Electoral Commission's website.

Signing Nominations:

The nomination paper must be subscribed by a:-

- (i) Proposer and
- (ii) Secunder

The proposer and seconder must be local government electors of the town/parish, or if the town/parish is divided into wards, the correct ward, and their electoral numbers must be given on the nomination paper.

Proposers/seconders cannot sign more nomination papers than the number of vacancies to be filled. Whilst the Electoral Team can provide poll numbers, they cannot formally validate a nomination paper immediately, as another candidate may have already submitted a paper bearing a similar proposer/seconder.

It is good practice for the clerk to the town/parish council not to sign nomination papers or advocate the election of any particular candidate. Strict impartiality will avoid any possible accusation of bias.

Consent to Nomination:

A submitted Nomination Paper is NOT valid unless the candidate's Consent to Nomination, given in writing, dated on or within one month before the last day for delivery of nomination papers, is delivered at the place and within the time appointed for the delivery of nomination papers. The consent must contain a statement declaring that, with reference to the day of nomination the candidate is, and on the day of election will be, qualified to be elected (giving particulars of his or her qualification) and must be attested by a witness. Any person may act as a witness to the candidate's signature. The consent to nomination must also include the candidate's date of birth.

Qualifications for Candidature:

To be qualified to be elected a member of a town/parish council, a person must be 18 years of age or over at the date of his or her nomination, and a commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, or a citizen of another member state of the European Community, and either:-

- (i) on that day he/she is and thereafter he/she continues to be a local government elector for the area of the parish; or
- (ii) he/she has during the whole of the twelve months preceding that day occupied as owner or tenant any land or other premises in the parish; or
- (iii) his/her principal or only place of work during that twelve months has been in that area; or
- (iv) he/she has during the whole of those twelve months resided either in the parish or within 4.8 kilometres of it.

Candidates must disclose this information on their Consent to Nomination and are advised to complete as many of the relevant qualifications as apply.

Disqualifications for Candidature:

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main (see S.80 of the Local Government Act 1972) are:-

- (a) holding a paid office under the authority;
- (b) bankruptcy;
- (c) having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and
- (d) being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Campaigning and Expenditure:

Election campaigning can be carried out as soon as a person declares himself/herself to be a candidate. It is in the interests of each candidate to undertake their own publicity campaign, so that potential voters know who they are voting for.

Candidates are subject to limits on what they spend during the regulated period in advance of an election. The limit for the local government elections is £740, plus 6p per local government elector in the ward. A record (and receipts) for any expenses incurred should be kept, as towards the end of the election process, each candidate must, by law, complete and return their Election Expenses.

Candidates sometimes believe that they can claim back their campaign expenditure. No reimbursement of expenses can be made by Shropshire Council to candidates – it is a record which is required to be submitted by law, and is a public document which is available for public inspection.

Election Imprints for Publicity Material:

IMPORTANT: All election publicity material MUST carry the correct imprint. Please either contact the Electoral Commission direct for advice and/or refer to their guidance notes, reproduced as Appendix 3.

C2. Statement of Persons Nominated

As soon as practicable after the closing date and time for receipt of nominations, the Returning Officer is required to publish a Statement of Persons. This shows the details of the candidates who are validly nominated, and also the details of those who submitted nomination papers but are not validly nominated/have withdrawn, together with the reasons therefor.

A copy of this statement will be sent to the town/parish clerk for display locally, and a copy will be sent to the relevant town/parish chairman for information. A copy of the notice will be published on Shropshire Council's website, so you may wish to log on to see who the other candidates are (if any).

C3. Withdrawal of Candidature

A candidate may withdraw his or her candidature if, by the time the nomination period closes, he or she delivers to the place fixed for the delivery of nomination papers a Notice of Withdrawal signed by him or her, and attested by one witness.

A candidate who is validly nominated for more than one ward of the same town/parish must withdraw their candidature in all those wards except one by that deadline, otherwise they shall be deemed to have withdrawn from all those wards.

It is only at the expiry of the deadline for withdrawals that we will know whether or not there will be a poll.

C4. Appointment of Polling and Counting Agents

Whilst it is not usual for a town or parish council election, a candidate may, if they wish, appoint polling agents to detect personation at a polling station and counting agents to observe at the count.

A polling agent is not the same as a 'teller' (a candidate's helper who takes the numbers of electors leaving the polling station), who has no official standing and is not allowed to enter the polling station except to vote.

C5. Uncontested Elections

If the number of people remaining validly nominated after any withdrawals does not exceed the number of Councillors to be elected, such people will be declared to be elected. The Returning Officer will give notice of their names to the town/parish clerk or chairman and to the public.

Even if there is just one candidate, he/she is elected unopposed as at the withdrawal date and time.

People elected in these circumstances at scheduled elections do not take up office until four days after the day of election. In the case of a by-election however, an unopposed candidate will take office immediately after they have been declared to be elected (which is after the latest time for delivery of the close of withdrawals). Refer to "Local Elections (Parishes and Communities) (England and Wales) Rules 2006 - (Rule 50 (2))".

Please note that at scheduled elections, if there are not enough candidates to fill all the vacancies, the Representation of the People Act 1985, Section 21 allows the elected members, provided there is a quorum (i.e. – one third of the whole number of members with a minimum of three) to co-opt members to fill the remaining vacancies.

If the town/parish council fails to exercise their power to co-opt within seven weeks (35 days computed as under paragraph 3) or if there is no quorum, Shropshire Council may order a fresh election to properly constitute the town/parish council.

C6. Contested Elections – Declaration of Result – The Count

When the result of the poll is known, the Returning Officer or the appointed Deputy will:-

- (a) declare to be elected, the candidate(s) to whom more votes have been given than to the other candidates, up to the number of councillors to be elected.
- (b) give notice of the name of each candidate elected to the town/parish clerk and relevant chairman
- (c) give public notice of the name of each candidate and of the total number of votes given for each (whether elected or not) together with the number of rejected ballot papers

Candidates are encouraged to attend the counting of the votes, to oversee proceedings. Forms to advise the Returning Officer of Candidates' attendance, together with their partner/spouse and Counting Agents, are included in the Nomination Pack. These should be submitted as soon as practicable.

C7. Election Expenses

At the end of the election period, even if no poll has taken place, each candidate (whether successful or not) MUST BY LAW submit a Statement of Election Expenses/Declaration to show the expenses (if any) incurred as part of their election campaign.

These documents must be made available for public inspection and failure to return one (even if it is a 'Nil Return') is a reported electoral offence.

C8. Register of Electors and Absent Voters Lists supplied to Candidates

Candidates at by-elections can request a copy of the Register of Electors and Absent Voters Lists, using the application forms supplied as part of their Nomination Pack.

The Register will be supplied in data format unless otherwise requested. Any paper copy of the Register supplied, must be returned to the Elections Office after the election period.

C9. Declaration of Acceptance of Office

A person elected to the office of a town/parish councillor shall:-

- (a) in the case of the chair, at the meeting at which they are elected; or
- (b) in the case of a councillor, before or at the first meeting of the town/parish council after their election; or
- (c) in either case if the council at that meeting allows, before or at a later meeting fixed by the council.

in the presence of a member of the council who has already themselves, declared, or the proper officer of the Council, sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office (see Appendix 4).

Failure to execute the Declaration prior to their first meeting will result in them not being able to participate, and if it remains unsigned, will result in their office becoming vacant. (Local Government Act 1972, Section 83).

CASUAL VACANCIES – CANDIDATES’ CHECKLIST

The various stages of the election process can prove to be daunting if you have not stood as a candidate before. Even though we have provided you with a timetable as part of your nomination pack, you may find it useful if use the checklist below to ensure that you have done everything that is required, in chronological order, including submitting your record of election expenses right at the end of the election process.

Also, please remember to refer to Shropshire Council’s website to view the notices published throughout the election timetable – eg. Notice of Election, Statement of Persons Nominated, Notice of Poll and Election Results.

ELECTION IMPRINTS

Please refer to this section BEFORE producing your election material, as it is an electoral offence if your campaign material does not comply with the statutory regulations. For further guidance, please contact the Electoral Commission direct.

You must:

- Use imprints on all your campaign material, including websites.
- Comply with planning rules relating to advertising hoardings and large banners – you should ask the relevant local authority for advice.
- Make sure that outdoor posters are removed promptly after the election – you must do this within two weeks.

You should:

- Consider how to make your campaign accessible to people who are visually impaired, have learning difficulties or low literacy skills, or whose first language isn't English or, in Wales, Welsh. You may want to make contact with disability groups in your local area for advice.

You must not:

- Produce material that looks like the poll cards sent to voters by the Returning Officer.
- Pay people to display your adverts (unless they display adverts as part of their normal business).

USING IMPRINTS

What is an imprint?

An imprint must, by law, be added to campaign material to show who is responsible for its production. It helps to ensure that the campaign is transparent.

What do you need to include?

On printed material, such as leaflets and posters, you must include the name and address of:

- the printer
- the promoter
- any person on behalf of whom the material is being published (and who is not the promoter)

The promoter is the person who has authorised the material to be printed. If the promoter is acting on behalf of a group or organisation, the group or organisation's name and address must also be included.

You can use either home or office addresses.

If you are putting an advert in a newspaper, your advert does not need to include the printer's details.

Example of an Imprint

A standard imprint for independent candidates should look like this:

Printed by [printer's name and address].

Promoted by [agent's name] of [agent's address], on behalf of [candidate's name] of [candidate's address].

If the candidate is also the promoter of the material, the 'on behalf of' part of the imprint is not required.

In all cases, you must make sure that the imprint lists all the promoters and organisations involved.

Where do you put the Imprint?

If your material is single-sided – such as a window poster – you must put the imprint on the face of the document. If it is multi-sided, you must put it on the first or last page.

Websites and other Electronic Material

You should also put an imprint on electronic material, such as websites and emails. The imprint should include the name and address of the promoter and the organisation on whose behalf it has been produced.
